Please also refer to our specification form for exact descriptions of page sizes, bleeds, crop marks, resolution, colours etc. To ensure the highest quality, please make certain that your advertisement conforms to the technical specifications and size criteria. We cannot guarantee how an advertisement that doesn't conform will look when printed.

Our printing partner, Lincoln Graphics, will be happy to work with you and help you produce a high quality advertisement, for a fee. Changes to existing advertisements may also incur a charge.

The specification form includes easy-to-follow instructions on how to submit material.
